ABOUT YOUR HOST TEACHER IN MURCIA

As a language teacher, I have learned to make the most of my time, and to use the right tools for each learning stage and the right techniques for each student, because not all students are the same.

In my personal experience, the Immersion Course is an extraordinary tool, especially to gain fluency in the target language and tackle the lack of confidence that we feel at times.

This type of experience helps a lot to overcome all the obstacles of learning a new language.

Likes and passions:

- Psychology
- Personal development
- Cultures and countries
- Art, cinema and sports
- Health, food and the environment

I would love to be your "journey partner" teaching you Spanish language and Spanish culture in situ.

Undoubtedly, this is the best way to learn to SPEAK SPANISH.

¡HASTA PRONTO!

PILAR

"I try to share my own hobbies with my students if they are willing to have new experiences in a beautiful city like Valencia".

IMMERSION BENEFITS

What are the benefits of our Spanish Homestay Immersion Programme (SHIP) * Live & Study Spanish in your teacher's home*?

Living and studying a language in your teacher's home can offer a number of benefits, including:

1. Immersion: Living with your teacher provides an immersive experience, allowing you to be constantly surrounded by the language and culture you are studying. This can accelerate your learning and help you to develop natural speaking and listening skills.
2. Personalized learning: Living with your teacher allows for personalized and tailored instruction. Your teacher can focus on your individual needs and work with you to improve your weaknesses.
3. Cultural experience: Living with your teacher provides a unique opportunity to experience the culture firsthand. You can learn about customs, traditions, and ways of life that are not easily learned in a classroom.
4. Practice outside of class: Living with your teacher provides ample opportunity to practice the language outside of class time. This can include informal conversations at meal times or while doing activities together.
5. Convenience: Living with your teacher eliminates the need for commuting to and from classes, allowing you to spend more time studying and practicing the language.

Overall, living and studying a language in your teacher's home can be a highly effective way to learn a language, as it offers an immersive and personalized learning experience, as well as a unique cultural experience.

STUDENTS' TESTIMONIALS

HEAR WHAT OUR STUDENTS HAVE TO SAY...

THILA (Malaysia)

The course was very good and well planned. The lessons were well taught, very comprehensive and easily understood.

Always very happy to come to my lesson because it is a very happy atmosphere. The teachers, Mónica and Pilar, have an excellent approach and made our lessons enjoyable, easy to understand and made us feel special.

I highly recommend taking this opportunity to have this experience.

I have been learning with Spanish Express for 18 months now. I had no prior knowledge of the language but now I know I would be able to go to Spain, find my way around and have everyday conversations with people.

I have learned in a group situation and individually and enjoyed both. Our group trip to Murcia was my highlight of last summer.

Pilar is a very patient teacher and explains the use of the language very well. Spanish Express has been a great learning experience.

ADELINA (Rumania)

Overall, this was a great way to experience Spanish culture and to practise my Spanish. The trip was packed full of activities and places to visit and the trip itinerary was pre-planned and run by the teacher which allowed me to fully enjoy the experience stress-free.

Interacting with the locals in Spanish and being fully immersed in the culture for a week enabled me to speak Spanish confidently, which helped me make substantial progress in mastering the language.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

HEALTHCARE

EU residents are entitled to free health care while in Spain for holidays or for the first three months of their stay, so long as they can provide an EHIC (European Health Insurance Card). This will cover any immediate treatment needed. Medical conditions that do not require immediate treatment might incur charges. The EHIC card is not valid for health care in Spain if the holder is a Spanish resident.

The card only covers you for publicly-funded health care in Spain, not private, so make sure that the clinic or surgery you attend is aware of this, especially if both public and private services are on offer. Also, should you need an ambulance, make sure that it takes you to a hospital that offers treatment that the EHIC card will cover.

ENGLISH-SPEAKING DOCTORS & NURSES

It is possible, but not guaranteed, that you will find an English-speaking nurse or doctor in most hospitals. If an English speaker is not available, most health services, particularly those in touristy areas, will provide an interpreter at a cost. In some regions, doctors refuse to treat patients who cannot speak Spanish unless they have an interpreter, as it can double diagnosis time. Finding an English-speaking doctor in a private hospital is almost guaranteed.

DENTISTS

Visits to the dentist must be paid for in Spain and are not available under the state system except in certain circumstances. Children aged 6 to 15 years old have the right to a free dental health programme. In popular expat areas along the coast, several dental practices cater to English speakers. Private dental work in Spain tends to be cheaper than private dentistry in the UK.

PHARMACIES

Pharmacies are everywhere in Spain, even in the smallest villages, indicated by an illuminated green cross. The prescription service is much more relaxed than in the UK, with many items that would require prescriptions in the UK available over the counter. These include antibiotics and asthma inhalers, as just two examples.

CONTACTS

The Department of Health has two offices in Spain, which can deal with health care enquiries from British nationals either visiting or living in Spain. You can find more details at healthcareinspain.eu.

VISAS

What documentation is required to travel to Spain?

The documentation required to travel to Spain varies according to the country of origin. If you are a citizen of an EU country, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Lichtenstein, you will need a valid passport or ID card. Additionally, in the case of a minor travelling with an ID document, this must be accompanied by written permission from the parents. If you come from another country: The maximum stay in Spain is 90 days.

There are several countries whose citizens are required to have a valid current visa to enter Spain.

You can check them on this list:

<http://www.exteriores.gob.es/Portal/es/ServiciosAlCiudadano/InformacionParaExtranjeros/Documents/listapaisesvisado.pdf>

Citizens of these countries can also travel to Spain if they have a residence permit or a long-term visa issued by another country in the European Union (except for the United Kingdom, Ireland, Romania, Bulgaria and Cyprus), Switzerland, Norway, Iceland and Lichtenstein.

Citizens of all other countries must have documents that justify the object and the conditions of their stay and show they have sufficient economic resources for their maintenance throughout the period they are intending to remain in Spain. The documents they are required to present will vary according to the motive for the trip.

Nearest airport: Aeropuerto Internacional Región de Murcia

It is advisable to take out travel insurance for your trip.

Given that conditions may vary, we suggest you contact the Spanish Embassy or Consulate to verify these requirements before you start your trip.

WEATHER

Murcia also enjoys a Mediterranean climate, characterized by mild winters and hot summers. The average annual temperature in Murcia is around 23.5°C during the day and 14.5°C at night. In the coolest months, typically January and February, temperatures range from 15 to 21°C during the day and 5 to 11°C at night. During the hottest months, like July and August, temperatures soar, ranging from 30 to 34°C during the day and from 22 to 23°C at night.

Tip!

The weather in Murcia is generally pleasant throughout the year, but the absolute best weather can be experienced from April to the end of June. These months are particularly inviting for a visit to the city, with warm days and comfortably cool nights.
