ABOUT YOUR HOST TEACHER IN VALENCIA

As a language teacher, I have learned to make the most of my time, and to use the right tools for each learning stage and the right techniques for each student, because not all students are the same.

In my personal experience, the Immersion Course is an extraordinary tool, especially to gain fluency in the target language and tackle the lack of confidence that we feel at times.

This type of experience helps a lot to overcome all the obstacles of learning a new language.

Likes and passions:

- Psychology
- Personal development
- Cultures and countries
- Art, cinema and sports
- Health, food and the environment

I would love to be your "journey partner" teaching you Spanish language and Spanish culture in situ.

Undoubtedly, this is the best way to learn to SPEAK SPANISH.

¡HASTA PRONTO!

PILAR

"I try to share my own hobbies with my students if they are willing to have new experiences in a beautiful city like Valencia".

4. Practice outside of class: Living with your teacher provides ample opportunity to practice the language outside of class time. This can include informal conversations at meal times or while doing activities together.
5. Convenience: Living with your teacher eliminates the need for commuting to and from classes, allowing you to spend more time studying and practicing the language.

Overall, living and studying a language in your teacher's home can be a highly effective way to learn a language, as it offers an immersive and personalized learning experience, as well as a unique cultural experience.

STUDENTS' TESTIMONIALS

HEAR WHAT OUR STUDENTS HAVE TO SAY...

GIDEON

(United Kingdom)

With the help of Pilar and her family, I was able to relax and enjoy my daily Spanish lessons while travelling to beautiful locations. I also acquired the skills necessary to prepare paella, a meal popular in Valencia.

They drove me to the shore, where I engaged in some water sports with Max, Pilar's son.

I can hold a conversation in Spanish now, and what's wonderful is that I brought back a wealth of knowledge to share with my family when I returned home.

Pilar and her son Max were incredibly welcoming and I immediately felt at home in their house. It was a full week of activities tailored to my interests, including a jazz concert, a flamenco show, a visit to the famous Tomatina festival and a tour of the historic centre of Valencia.

The week was full of opportunities to meet and talk to Spanish speakers, such as a meal with Pilar's friends and family where they cooked a delicious paella. By the end of the week, I felt a big difference in my understanding of Spanish and my knowledge of Spanish culture.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

HEALTHCARE

EU residents are entitled to free health care while in Spain for holidays or for the first three months of their stay, so long as they can provide an EHIC (European Health Insurance Card). This will cover any immediate treatment needed. Medical conditions that do not require immediate treatment might incur charges. The EHIC card is not valid for health care in Spain if the holder is a Spanish resident.

The card only covers you for publicly-funded health care in Spain, not private, so make sure that the clinic or surgery you attend is aware of this, especially if both public and private services are on offer. Also, should you need an ambulance, make sure that it takes you to a hospital that offers treatment that the EHIC card will cover.

ENGLISH-SPEAKING DOCTORS & NURSES

It is possible, but not guaranteed, that you will find an English-speaking nurse or doctor in most hospitals. If an English-speaker is not available, most health services, particularly those in touristy areas, will provide an interpreter at a cost. In some regions, doctors refuse to treat patients who cannot speak Spanish unless they have an interpreter, as it can double diagnosis time. Finding an English-speaking doctor in a private hospital is almost guaranteed.

DENTISTS

Visits to the dentist must be paid for in Spain and are not available under the state system except in certain circumstances. Children aged 6 to 15 years old have the right to a free dental health programme. In popular expat areas along the coast, there are several dental practices that cater to English speakers. Private dental work in Spain tends to be cheaper than private dentistry in the UK.

PHARMACIES

Pharmacies are everywhere in Spain, even in the smallest villages, indicated by an illuminated green cross. The prescription service is much more relaxed than in the UK, with many items that would require prescriptions in the UK available over the counter. These include antibiotics and asthma inhalers, as just two examples.

CONTACTS

The Department of Health has two offices in Spain, which can deal with health care enquiries from British nationals either visiting or living in Spain. You can find more details at healthcareinspain.eu.

VISAS

What documentation is required to travel to Spain?

The documentation required to travel to Spain varies according to the country of origin. If you are a citizen of an EU country, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Lichtenstein, you will need a valid passport or ID card. Additionally, in the case of a minor travelling with an ID document, this must be accompanied by written permission from the parents. If you come from another country: the maximum stay in Spain is 90 days.

There are several countries whose citizens are required to have a valid current visa to enter Spain.

You can check them on this list:

<http://www.exteriores.gob.es/Portal/es/ServiciosAlCiudadano/InformacionParaExtranjeros/Documents/listapaisesvisado.pdf>

Citizens of these countries can also travel to Spain if they have a residence permit or a long-term visa issued by another country in the European Union (except for the United Kingdom, Ireland, Romania, Bulgaria and Cyprus), Switzerland, Norway, Iceland and Lichtenstein.

Citizens of all other countries must have documents that justify the object and the conditions of their stay and show they have sufficient economic resources for their maintenance throughout the period they are intending to remain in Spain. The documents they are required to present will vary according to the motive for the trip.

Nearest airport: Aeropuerto de Valencia (VLC)

It is advisable to take out travel insurance for your trip.

Given that conditions may vary, we suggest you contact the Spanish Embassy or Consulate to verify these requirements before you start your trip.

WEATHER

Valencia has a Mediterranean climate with mild winters and hot summers. Its average annual temperature is 22.8°C during the day and 13.8°C at night. In the coldest months, January and February, the temperature ranges from 14 to 20°C during the day and 4 to 10°C at night. In the warmest months, July and August, the temperature ranges from 28 to 32°C during the day and from 21 to 22°C at night.

Tip!

The weather is pleasant for most of the year. However, you'll experience the absolute best weather from April to the end of June making these months particularly attractive for a visit to the city.
